HAVAS' AGENCY

Paris 1st.

Algiers telegrams report serious disturbances on the Tunisian frontier, which local authorities cannot suppress, although the Government has taken energetic steps to put down the insurrection.

NEWSPAPER OPPOSITION

Nothing is really more remarkable, in surveying the present situation of the country, than its very rapid advancement and the decline of the opposition. The Tribuna, one of the oldest papers in this city, a paper more intensely opposed to the present National Government than even the Nacion, or the Patria Argentina, has gone down, with less fuss than even the poor steamer Saturno in front of the Water Works. There was a time when the Tribuna wielded far greater power in this city than the Governor of the province, or even the President of the Republic, but times have so monstrously changed in the Plate that this great political Leviathan stops short, never to go again, with less social inconvenience than if one of Bagley's prize biscuit clocks had gone the way of grandfather's clock. Political opposition, from one cause or other, has so declined amongst us that the Patria Argentina, which is an acknowledged opposition paper, has to embrace the banner of forced currency in order to make its columns readable, whilst the Nacion, which is beyond doubt one of our best papers, writes in the most temperate tone on every subject, and instead of idly opposing the Government on every point, very properly supports it on some of the most important and difficult questions of the day.

These few facts evidence an improved public opinion and a growing distaste amongst the reading public to all that stupid, senseless opposition that in former years held such sway in this city.

The country is gradually rising from the meshes of forced currency, repudiation and deficits, and it really speaks volumes for the improved tone of our politics and our public men, when the opposition papers, in order to maintain their banner of opposition, are forced to embrace the cause of 'curso forsoso' paper emissions and all such creeds, which are now becoming rapidly exploded. The Nat. Government owes to the Prov. Bank certain quarterly amortizations on the ten millions loan. President Roca is resolved on paying them off and insisting on the Bank burning the amount; nothing could be more honorable or more in consonance with the terms of the contract. Gov. Romero proposes to consolidate the debt due by the Prov. Government to the Bank and issue bonds to liquidate the debt, but the opposition organs see in all this a conspiracy against the bank, or in other words a determination to abolish 'curso forsoso;' but the public sides with the Government; the organs of the opposition find the very ground slipping from under their feet. The Tribuna leads the way, and the Patria Argentina and Protesta will soon follow, if they do not change their tactics and imitate the Nacion, that maintains a dignified and useful opposition, supporting the Government on all measures that it considers merits support, and attacking abuses which no political party can defend.

No paper was more bitter against the Roca Government than the Tribuna; no paper wrote more stinging leaders against the Cabinet; no paper more thoroughly represented the old Buenos Ayrean party than the Tribuna, and yet with all its history, and with all its political claims; it has closed its door of its own accord; no Fiscal or Government has shut it up; no lawsuit for heavy damages was taken against it. The demise of the Tribuna teaches a great political lesson, none greater than that when public men, no matter of what party, are honestly doing their best, the people are quick to appreciate their efforts. In twelve months more the Mitre and Roca party will be one and the same. We read the future under the coffin lid of our defunct colleague, who has dropped into the ocean of oblivion, without causing a ripple, or even the spreading circle of a pebble cast on the placid political waters of the Plate.

THE ITALIAN EXHIBITION.

FINE ARTS.

As you enter the Department of Fine Arts, you certainly do not receive the same impression as when the stranger enters the Gallerie de Apollon in the Louvre. But the 'tout ensemble' is charming, and if the present unpretending gallery does not boast a masterpiece from Murillo's or Rubens's brush, there are certainly some paintings which rivet the attention of the neophyte. Buenos Aires is an infant in art and painters are not duly appreciated, from a want of education in the people. Sensibility to art is certainly innate, but the taste is, nevertheless, liable to be cultivated. The Buenos Aires public, for example, is a perfect critic of music, because years of operas have raised the acoustic qualities of the 'habitués.' If paintings were exhibited every year and prizes distributed periodically, a change would soon be evident, and a generation of artists and art-critics might rise. At present those who appreciate colours are few, and those few, we might say, only affect it.

As you look around, the first object which catches the eye is Mrs. Canale's accurate rendering of a bunch of grapes, surrounded with other fruit, and a bird tastefully perched on them. A painting close to immediately fascinates the visitor. At a glance he discovers Masaniello: Masaniello himself is perfect. You see the revolutionist and the patriot. Every feature breathes energy, whilst his attitude it threatening. The painter has sought effect and he has succeeded, so much so, that all your attention is directed towards the hero, and gradually your eyes wander to the minor satellites of the painting. The other persons are quite thrown in the shade by the hero: Toledo is well rendered. The attitude of the Duke is grave, and his countenance implies the tenor of his speech to the insurgent chief. You detect the Hidalgo spirit of the Spanish blood on the forehead and brows of the great nobleman: it would be ridiculous to seek expression in the Duke's thumbs, as some critics in detail have—such details are so many 'nuances,' which, as a whole, are very effective, but singly do not amount to much. There is one character in the painting defective, it is the man clad in yellow. It is like a shrill note in a soft melody: the buffoon amongst the potent and grave. The character may be true to history, but the colour you can feel clashes with the tenor of the painting: the movement to the hilt of the sword is slightly theatrical and might have been toned down. As regards the Cardinal, he is secondary in the picture: intrigue may be stamped on his features, but the doubtful feelings of the churchman might have been better rendered. The insurgents do not necessitate much mention: they are like all insurgents, a crowd.

Masaniello is a good specimen of River Plate art. The man who painted it is not a Kranich: he has produced no school—originality there is certainly none—but nobody can deny to the picture its worth. It is a credit to the Exhibition; but let nobody compare it to Horace Vernet's brush. Everybody can detect that the painting is a favourite of the artist's, of an artist who has produced some good 'tableaux.'

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 30th.

For the information of the foreign readers of the Standard, and it may be acceptable to many nearer home, I give you a list of popular institutions in Rosario. First amongst these are the Mutual Benefit Societies. The Spanish 'Socorros Mutuos' is the oldest, having been founded in 1857. It has 419 members, who paid an entrance fee of three Bolivian dollars, the monthly quota being one and a quarter of a dollar. Their capital amounts to $ f.22,148. This society has built in the public cemetery a very handsome mausoleum, to deposit therein the remains of deceased members. This monument cost upwards of $ f.7,000.

The Italian Society, 'D'Union é Benevolenza,' was founded in 1861, and counts 560 members, paying an entrance fee of five dollars and a monthly stipend of one dollar. Its capital is $ f. 22,000. Instead of a monument for the dead, the Italians have built a magnificent one for the living, in the shape of a large school-house, where the poorer children of their countrymen are educated gratis. In this building there is also a dispensary, where drugs and medicines are given out free to the poorer classes.

The French Society, 'Secours Mutuels,' was founded in 1863, with 105 members, and has a capital of $ f.4,000. The entrance fee is five dollars, and the same monthly fee as the Spanish.

Besides these there are the 'Swiss Philantropique,' the 'Friendly Society of the Central Argentine Railway,' the 'German Society,' and a native society about which I have not been able to obtain any data.

The principal object of all these societies is to administer assistance and medical advice to sick members and their families. In the case of the Italian Society, we see that they add education to their programme. The Spaniards, I believe, have a fund to pay the passage to the mother country of destitute countrymen.

Of public libraries we have only one, and it is in a languishing state for want of funds. There are some three thousand volumes. This is too essentially a hardworking and commercial community to be able to spare time for reading anything beyond the daily papers.

The Rosario 'Athenænm' is a highly respectable institution, comprising most of the principal intellects of the town. It is a literary and scientific society, where young men studying for the Bar may go through a course of lectures on Jurisprudence, and where they may exercise themselves in oratorical discussions on Law, History, or Physics,

The 'Club Industrial' is a succursal or appendix of that of Buenos Aires, and works in the same groove: that is, to foment native manufactures. They have succeeded so far in driving American corn brooms out of our market and 'alpargatas.' I do not remember any other articles If they would establish prizes for the best animals of all kinds, the best wines, wheat, maize and other agricultural products, sugar, dried fruit, &c., they would be useful members of society.

Will you please take into consideration that we have no Bolsa in Rosario, and consequently are not 'au fait' in financial accumen. In plain words, we cannot make out the terms on which the loan of twelve millions has been negotiated. All that the papers tell us is that it has been taken up at 82 'al firme,' and rhe Standard says this is equal to 90. Take compassion on our ignorance. What does 'al firme' mean? What interest does the Government pay, and when and how is the capital to be repaid? There are very few countries in the world, outside the English colonies, whose credit ought to stand higher than that of the Argentine nation. If I remember rightly Chile placed her last European loan, five per cents., at above ninety. If your twelve millions is another six per cent. loan, it surely ought to be negotiated at ninety-three or four. If the Government is only to get eighty-two dollars for every one hundred dollar bond, even if they pay five per cent. interest, I would say that the credit of the Argentine Republic is by no means in as brilliant a condition as I thought it was. When Canada wants a loan, and they never give more than 5 per cent, the bonds are taken at a premium; and in the Argentine Republic a six per cent loan (I suppose that is the figure) is placed at eighteen per cent discount! Should I be right in my conjectures as to the terms, then I must say that our Government have a very low opinion of the credit of their country.

The weather has suffered a very sudden change. Rain followed an excessively hot day, just such heat as you have been complaining of in Buenos Ayres, and immediately afterwards the atmosphere became cold and bracing. Outside the town the cold was intense enough to coat water with ice.

A tragic incident occurred in one of our principal streets on Monday. A Captain Barzola, of the Regular Army, and considerably under the effects of liquor, descended from a tram car, with his wife and a friend, at the corner of a street, where was standing a young man named Baltazar Ponce, a National employee. It appears that Ponce made some remarks on the state of the gallant Captain, who turned round in a fury and drew a dagger. Ponce immediately took out a revolver and fired. The first ball missed, but the second fractured Barzola's leg. On this, the Captain's wife tried to lead him away, and Ponce also commenced to retire, satisfied with what he had done; but stepping backwards, with the pistol still in his hand, he fell. In a moment the friend of Barzola threw himself upon the fallen man, on seeing which the Captain broke from his wife, and crawled or staggered to where his friend was holding Ponce down, and stabbed him two or three times, receiving at the same time another ball in the chest from Ponce's pistol. The parties were then separated. There were several policemen about, but the uniform of the Captain deterred them from interfering until all was over. Ponce staggered to the nearest house, and fell dead on the threshold. The Captain was taken off in a carriage; he will probably lose his leg, and perhaps his life. The man that held Ponce down while Barzola stabbed him, is in jail, and is looked upon as worse than the actual murderer, for he was sober, and acted in cold blood. I should like to ask the National and Provincial authorities two questions:

How is it that Tom, Dick and Harry, and more particularly the employees, all carry revolvers? And how is it that an officer in the National army should wear a two edged formidable dagger instead of a sword? Mr Standard, be assured, that we are passing through an epoch in which a vast number of wrong men are in wrong places. Be careful how you make use of your favorite axiom.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The most important public amusement to-day, during day light, is the race meeting at Palermo. The events on the "krect card" all promise good sport, but the race of the day is the Blissful stakes, $25,000, for fillies. Should the weather be fine, there will be a gathering worthy of Goodwood at Palermo to-day. We recommend all subscribers who attend the races to keep a sharp look out for the escaped tiger; and if they have time to take a few notes for us about her, should they come across her, we shall feel infinitely obliged.

Some of the English papers say that the Boers offered £12 for General Colley, dead or alive, before the battle of Majuba Hill began; and they also hint that he was wantonly shot down; he made no effort whatever to escape, but met his death with cool dignity. We doubt the story about the £12.

Telegrams from Salta deny the reported revolution in Potosi, and the Foreign Office has no news of it either.

The Rev. Father Vaughan, who is so highly esteemed here, has returned from his flying visit to Europe, on the occasion of his father's illness and death; he is now in Montevideo, but his numerous friends here hope for the pleasure of seeing him soon.

The report that Signor Poggi had sold his splendid organ in the Italian Exhibition to the parish priest of Fiores, for the new church there, is contradicted.

"How to make one's own Dresses", a ladies' book of the most useful kind, is now to be had for ten paper dollars, at Messrs. Jacobsen's book shop in Calle Florida. The Princess of Wales, they say, often makes herself a dress, so meaner mortals may well follow such ane xcellent example.

An Argentine soprano, Señorita Eulalia Fernandez, is creating a prodigious sensation in Italy, as the Queen in Ruy Blas. The talented prima-donna only left here a few years ago to complete her studies.

Palermo and its neighbourhood is getting rather a warm corner, between escaped tigers, apparitions, etc. The 'ghost' which drove several of the soldiers on guard at the Penitentiary into fits of hysterics a fortnight ago appeared again the other night, and tried to climb into one of the cells, through the railings. The sentinel on guard was of somewhat 'sterner stuff' than that which is frightened by either 'spirit of earth or goblin damned,' but the ghost being in female attire, he warned her to move on, or he would fire; the lady would not move either on or off, so two Remington bullets were let fly at her, and, when the smoke cleared away, she was gone. The guard turned out at the double report. and the officer, having heard the details from the sentinel, ordered another, a Pampa Indian, to take his place. In a few minutes the guard turned out again, on hearing despairing shrieks from the Indian, who was found 'in a doldrum,' with his hair on end, his eyes starting from their sockets, and his rifle on the ground. When the valiant soldier recovered the use of his tongue, he said that an enormous old man with white beard, who grew larger as the advanced, rushed on him as he was about to fire, and gave him a hug like a Polar bear, leaving him powerless from terror, and then vanishing. This is the last story from Palermo. The prison guard are very bad shots and ridiculously superstitious, or this ghost would have been laid long ago. Some one of the crack shots of the Gun Club ought to get Governor O'Gorman's permission to go on guard some night and have a slap at this wonderful ghost.

Wool men are in better spirits. A general impression is entertained that bottom has been touched in Europe.

If any of our subscribers want to buy a superb Retriever dog, we can tell where he is to be found, and won't make any charge for the service.

The inhabitants of Aquila, chief town of the Lower Abruzzi, are about to spend ten thousand francs in a statue of Sallust, who was born there 86 B.C.

The Prensa mentions another truly scandalous instance of the way in which justice is administered in this country. In 1875 an old man was barbarously murdered in his rancho near Chivilcoy, together with his little son, a mere child. On the date of the murder, his son-in-law, a man named Quevedo, was undergoing eight days' imprisonment for drunkenness, but, when he was liberated and returned home, a peon who lived in the rancho with the old man, and was wounded on the night of the murder, declared that he thought he saw Quevedo amongst the assassins, although it was well known he was in jail at the time. On this peon's 'thought' Quevedo has been in jail for five years; in May last the Judge gave his decision in the case and declared him innocent!! Yet, will it be believed? he is in prison still!!! This truly monstrous case is enough to make every Argentine bow his head in shame. It is the worst we have ever heard of, even in this country.

There will be a grand 'funcion' to night at the Colon Theatre in aid of the new Spanish Hospital about to be erected in this city. The programme is splendid, and as no nationality is more lavish in Charity's cause than the Spanish residents of Buenos Aires, a crowded and brilliant audience may be expected in the old theatre to-night.

The 'haut ton' now make the Italian Exhibition a rendezvous on concert nights. Of course the demi-semi high tone will follow suit,

The latest news from Asuncion is that the recent elections there passed off with the greatest order. President Caballero forbade the slightest interference by the authorities, or the least exercise of official influence! Caramba, is poor Paraguay going to show South America the way to honest elective government?

Service in the Nat. Guard has ceased to be a joke. In the Buenos Aires regiments only 750 citizens have been exempted from service this year for physical defects. Last year there were 3000. It is satisfactory to see the male population so much sounder this year than last.

The change in the weather has caused a rush to the 'tile' factory of Mr Sommer, in Calle Rivadavia, for Lincoln and Bennett hats, which are now all the rage in Europe. The best time to try on a hat is before breakfast: hats bought after dinner never fit well. Mr Sommer threatens to introduce the new Bay hat, or the San Blas hat. If he wants a site in the new port town of San Blas, we hereby promise to give it to him free and for ever.

Sr Modesto Omiste is to be the new Bolivian Minister here when Dr. Quijarro is promoted to Rio.

There is some talk of getting up a Victor Hugo fete here. Victor surpassed himself in his salute to the city of Paris. Saintly Paris! Even Cordoba has never been called that.

It is said that another opposition paper is to succeed the defunct Tribuna Argentina.

Our colleagues are indulging in some rather loose theories as to applying the Railway, or rather the Wine and Sugar Loan, to sundry objects foreign to the purpose for which it was raised. We object to this on principle, but it is to be done, we beg to put in a good word for the unfortunate Municipal Bondholders, who have not received a copper real of interest for the last year and a half. The National and Provincial Governments are now both full of money, or soon will be from the proceeds of their recent loans, and it would greatly redound to their financial credit at home and abroad if, without any ultimate diversion of the money raised from its proper channel, they could avail of the plethora of cash to pay the unfortunate Municipal Bondholders. We have no doubt that, when Congress meets and the vast Municipal properties are sold, and everything put ship-shape, the Bondholders will be paid, but this is very cold comfort for them. The present state of this affair is a financial 'escandalo' and more damaging to the country's credit abroad than many are aware of.

A coloured lunatic entered the office of the W. Railway the other day and demanded the delivery of several wagon loads of sovereigns which had been consigned to him from Lobos. The clerk tried to put him off, but was so violently assaulted by the consignee of the gold that he shied the Day Book at him and knocked him heels over head. Some of the porters then came up and showed the visitor to the gate with as little ceremony as possible.

ON 'CHANGE.

April 2nd, 1881

Patacons	28.35
Cedulas A	93¾
National Bank Shares..	80½

The gold market opened weak and closed firm; a good deal of gold bought on last Thursday had to be delivered to-day, the market spite of everything closed five cents lower than the lowest sale yesterday afternoon. The Chilian question is the absorbing topic amongst the gold bulls, and it was said on 'Change that the Minister of Foreign Affairs contemplates publishing some papers on the matter, but not much importance is attached to these Chilian rumours by merchants whose great interests are to remit at a high exchange and low gold, but gold in the afternoon ruled scarcer than brokers anticipated.

Prices opened this morning for cash at 28.40, dropped to 28,30 and closed at 28.35; sales cash amounting to 103,961 pats. For the end of the month 760,000 pats. sold, opening at 28.40, dropping to 28.25 and closing at 28.35. For May and June sales at 28.25. The vencimientos were 174,232 pats.

Cedulas ruled firm spite of some foolish rumour about the debt due to the Bank and the coming balance sheet; the stock holds very firm and advanced ½.

National Bank Shares are on the high road to 85, close on 2,000 shares sold during ring hours, opening at 80½ and closing at 80¾. Yesterday afternoon some large purchases were made, fully 1,500 shares, and there is far more doing in this than in any other stock. The news on 'Change this morning is that the board is about to apply to the Government for the right to sell the Treasury Bonds, which during the term of office of the late Mr Riestra were enjoined not to be sold.

Respecting the Riachuelo Loan the Governor has received three offers, we hear, and in gold, but conditioned that the service be in the exterior.

The death of Mr Corrales, on board the Villarino in her last trip down, is reported.

The stoppage by the Provincial Government of all further Public Land sales has caused much inconvenience, and to some who came into town to bid. Many parties had been holding back intending to buy at this auction; they held back too long; and a very large premium was offered to one party for ten leagues of land bought in last week at the last Government auction. The probabilities are that the days are passed when Government lands can be bought on such credits and at such prices, and people who have not secured lands before now will have to buy on very different terms and prices.

The resumption of the Pergamino Branch Railway works is the very best news in the market. Large gangs of men have been sent out by rail to go on with the works, which will now be pushed ahead as fast as money can drive them. Next week the Railway Board will conclude its railway exchange business with the bank.

With pleasure we learn that the barraquero who suspended payment last week has concluded a most honorable arrangement with his creditors, which was rendered all the easier owing to the highly honorable character of the debtor.

Business at all points seemed very brisk to-day, the banks were thronged, and the payments heavy. All the Bolsa, all the tables were crowded, and it was easy to see from the large sums paid away the great revival during the week in produce business. At last there is a slight let up in wool, and much more is going on in the barracas than is reported; we heard of sales in deposits at 115 per ar.; some of the strongest export houses are now buying, and good wools sell readily. At the Custom House there is tremendous push, and more doing than ever before. They say we have yet to sell three millions ar. of wool, this, of course, means wool all the winter.

The sales at the ring were—

For cash 108,961 at 28.40-30-35

For April 9th 25,000 28.30-35-40

For April 15th 10,000 28.40

This is the first shipment of new maize.

Italian barque Henriqueta M. to load hides in Uruguay at 28s and 5 per cent.

Gold at afterhours showed a sharp reaction, and was brought cash at 28 40: it was said that cash gold was found scarce. For end of month 50,000 sold at 28.45 and for July at 28.30.

Cedulas very firm and one sale at 93¾.

But National Bank shares lead the market, and although two of the largest Bolsa holders sold heavily at the ring the price advances, which is most remarkable: 200 shares bought at 80¾, cash at once pushed up rates for end of month; Several buyers offered for cash but none to be had. The price at once advanced to 81 and not much sold at that price 3 buyers were offering on all sides for the stock, and some of the strongest buyers on 'Change.

The Leibnitz will be up in the morning. She brings some splendid English bulls and Lincoln sheep belonging to Mr. Nash, which as appears by notice will be sold in a few days by Messrs. Baltar & Quesada. We recommend our country friends to attend the auction. The Leibnitz leaves on 11th for Antwerp and Liverpool and has engaged so far.—

9000 salted horse hides.

10,000 salted ox and cow hides.

1,150 bales.

1,000 dry hides.

The Tycho Brahe will be up on Monday with 1000 tons for here She leaves on 7th for Brazil, where she has a full cargo engaged for London and Antwerp.

The Titania sails to morrow with mules for the Cape.

Who heard on 'Change of 7 lots good wool sold at 100, and one lot lambs at 82.—Also 5,000 arr. yesterday in deposit at 95, and 1,000 arr. Entre Rios at 105. Good wools are in demand and common wools that were so neglected show an improvement from 5 to 10.

Messrs Baltar & Quesada sold yesterday the well known chacra in Flores of the late Don Lorenzo Torres, 62½ squares of land with large roomy well built house, garden, monte, &c.; valuation $363,000 m/c sold for 416,900 m/c., being less than $7,000 m/c per square, house and improvements for nothing, still the place sold well, fetching so much over the legal valuation; Mr J Parravicini buyer. The same auctioneers also sold a small piece of land in the Capilla del Señor for $30,000 m/c; legal valuation 26,000 m/c.; Mr Coelho buyer.

Discount brokers report gold discounts very difficult, but paper money most abundant. Some National Government Provedor Bills, 25,000 pats, at 9 o/o per annum, and looked for at this rate.

The sale of 7,000 ar. of flour by the Constitution Mill deliverable all the year is reported at $36. Some 5,000 ar. in other lots sold at 35 and 34 m/c.

Messrs Duggan sold 20,000 ar. of wool from their deposits, various lots at from 83-92 m/c. Some lots from Messrs Unzue's deposits also sold at about the same prices.

On Monday the shareholders of the Argentine Gas Company will hold their General Meeting. As yet we have not seen the report, but believe that it shows the Company in a most favorable state.

The papers per Leibnitz bring important advices from London. A new line of steamers from Canada to Rio and thence to Plate has been started by a new company formed for the purpose. The following advices from New York are important:—

"The Clearing-house made an error of ten million dollars on Saturday in their estimate of the decrease of deposits of the associated banks, which was really eleven million dollars. The actual decrease in the reserve of the banks is thus $8,821,900, which results in their being one million dollars below the legal requirement. The stock market has been feverish all day. The closing tone was strong, but very feverish. Exchange was quite demoralised, and few transactions took place. The highest rate paid for money was 3/16, plus 6 per cent, but the ruling rate to stock brokers was 6, plus 1/16 to ¼ per cent. The Treasury to-day bought only $238,000 of bonds. The sum of $619,550 has been deposited for the purpose of withdrawing circulation. Thus far there has been drawn from the banks into the Treasury about $147,000,000, and returned by means of bond purchases about $5,750,000.

"We regret to have to announce the death, at the age of 55, of Mr J G Megaw, one of the joint general managers of the Merchant Banking Company."

Messrs J L Bowes & Brother, of Liverpool, under date March 3rd, 1881, report as follows:

"The past fortnight has been an unsatisfactory one as regards the wool trade. There is an absence of animation in all branches, and in some there is depression. The inclement weather checks the development of the spring trade, and considerable hesitation appears to be caused by the uncertainty as to the course of fashion for women's dress during the present year.

"The improvement in English wool has not been maintained, and trade at Bradford has relaped into the lethargic state which has characterised it for so long a period, and prices have fallen ¼d per lb. In London a feeling of weakness has become manifest at the auctions of Australian, and a decline of ¼d to 1d per lb. has occurred during the past week. Here, and in the Scotch markets, the tone has rather improved, and prices are a shade firmer, but the volume of business is small.

"River Plate—

"The weakness in Australian and River Plate wool has had an unfavourable effect upon sheepskins, and, at the auction held here yesterday, fellmongers showed a marked disinclination to operate. Out of 699 bales catalogued, only 221 bales were sold, and prices showed a fall of ¼d per lb. from the rates paid at the auction in January The low prices at which certain kinds of Australian wool can be bought interferes with the sale of the wool pulled from skins, and the demand for this description is now very dull. The attention of fellmongers in this neighbourhood, and in the midland counties, is at present much occupied by the abundant supply of English skins from sheep dying from the Rot, which, in some degree, accounts for their indisposition to operate in foreign skins. Roans are in moderate request for the American market at 1d per skin less than January rates. The table given below traces the course of the market, and gives to-day's values. The stock of skins in Liverpool is 1,695 bales, and there are 800 bales afloat for all English ports, including all clearances to 25th February.

"The next auction will be held 27th April."

In the Cape papers received we find the following, which we recommend to the Minister of Interior, to show what they are doing in the way of getting immigrants from Ireland to Africa:—

"The South African asserts that the contract entered into with the Union Steamship Company for the conveyance of emigrants to the several ports of this colony in the current year has been concluded upon terms considerably more favourable to the Colonial Government than they have hitherto obtained. The last contract was held by Messrs Donald Currie & Co. It would satisfy reasonable curiosity if the Government would publish the terms of the successful contract, stating at the same time, as was done once with reference to another public contract, the saving effected in comparison with the next lowest tender. The selection is left, we understand, to the Emigration Agent in London. It would be more satisfactory to that officer if two or three gentlemen were associated with him on such occasions as a Tender Board; if the Crown Agents, for instance, acted in the matter with his advice and assistance. The Union Company, we may be sure, will make admirable arrangements for carrying out their part of the contract; in this respect the choice between the two services must have been a difficult one. Some very considerable pecuniary advantage to his principals must have been necessary to console Mr Burnet for the disappointment caused by his selection to a brother Scot. The Emigration Agent is to be commended for his impartiality; but it is a faulty system which leaves the contract arrangements at the disposal of an individual. What would Mrs Grundy have said if Donald Currie had just chanced to tender sixpence below the rate offered by the Union Company, and thus gained the contract?"

The Rio mails bring the following rather important advices:—

"It is announced that a meeting of business men will take place in this city some time during the present week for the purpose of effecting a political organisation to secure representation in the next General Assembly. The movement is praiseworthy in the highest degree. It is high time that the men who contribute so largely to the wealth and development of the country, who are taxed to a greater extent than any other class, and who comprise within themselves so much of the industry and activity of the country, should be fully and ably represented by men of their own choice. It is an error to suppose that lawyers are best fitted to serve as legislators. In criminal legislation and in the preparation of legislative acts as to form the lawyer is indispensable, but in commercial legislation the business man is the one who should be most influential in determining the measures to be adopted. All countries suffer more or less from the enactment of defective or restrictive commercial laws, and this country is very far from being an exception to the rule. Tariffs are imposed without any comprehension as to their effects upon trade, and other taxes are levied upon business without regard to their justice or effects. In very many cases the presence of business men in the legislature would prevent or modify such legislative errors. It is to be hoped that the business men of this city, the metropolis as well as the capital of Brazil, will carry out their purpose and secure a just representation in the next Chamber."

We have received from the Minister of Hacienda the following table:—

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

—o—

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diptheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis &c.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

STATE OF IRELAND.

The news that the House of Lords met at an early hour to give the last stroke to the Bill for the Protection of Person and Property, and that in the afternoon it received the Royal assent, was quickly made known in Dublin and excited much interest. Strange misconceptions were current as to the proceedings consequent upon the passing of the Act. Many persons supposed that it would take instantaneous effect, and that arrests would be made simultaneously all over the country. The return of Mr Forster to Dublin Castle was understood to be for the purpose of filling up sheaves of warrants to be despatched by to-night's post. Conjecture was busy as to who were to be first honoured with the special attention of the Government. Some curiosity was even felt to see whether the Land League would hold its weekly meeting or retire into privacy and leave the ladies in occupation of the rooms. Surmise and speculation as to their intentions, however, were set at rest by the presence of Mr Dillon, M P., Mr T D Sullivan, M P, and other leaders at the appointed hour, and rather more than the average attendance of members. The public will probably be surprised to find that the Act cannot come into immediate force. An official copy of it must first be received, and then the forms of the warrant for arrest and the proclamation of the districts to be subjected to the Act have to be determined by the Lord Lieutenant and the Privy Council and published in the Gazette. The preliminary arrangements, which were not required under the former Coercion Acts, will cause some little delay; but no doubt the legal details have been all settled by the Law Officers, and no time will be lost in having them ratified by the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council. The Act will, in all probability, be in full force by the end of the week.

Mr N Goddard attended on the part of the Property Defence Association on Saturday with three men fully armed to take charge of a farm on the estate of Lord Annaly, within a few miles of Edgeworthstown, county Longford, from which a tenant named M'Grath was evicted about 12 months ago. It has been derelict ever since, the fences being broken down and the dwelling turned into a cowhouse, while the late tenant, following the advice of the Land League, has been living near and 'keeping an eye' on the land. Mr Goddard, having put the men into possession, remained for three days to see that the house was barricaded against attack, and returned to town last night. He proceeds tomorrow on the part of the association to render a similar service to a landlord in the south.

The police are making strenuous exertions to discover the persons engaged in the attempt to assassinate Mr Scott, of Stone-hall-house, near Ballina. He is positive that he shot one of the fellows. On going downstairs from the bedroom to get his firearms he was fired at through the hall door, and, standing on the stairs he discharged his gun loaded with heavy shot, through the fanlight over the door at a man who was standing on the wall opposite the door, and whom he distinctly saw fall, as if struck. The police hope to be able to discover the wounded man. Mr Scott had received letters before the attack warning him that if he did not dismiss a clerk in his employment he would be shot. On the same evening that he was fired at three shots were discharged into the house of a man named Brown, who lived within 500 yards of Mr Scott, but no person was injured.

Cork, March 2d.

The tenants of Mr Saunders, J.P., Charleville, who was recently 'Boycotted' by the Local Land League because he would not accept Griffith's valuation, have now surrendered. Yesterday all his tenants waited upon Mr Saunders at his residence, near Charleville, and paid their rents on being allowed some trifling reduction. What makes this submission the more remarkable is that many of the tenants are members of the local Land League, who at the time gave much support to the popular movement directed against Mr Saunders. At the meeting of the League to-day the matter was considered, and a discussion arose as to what course should be adopted with reference to those tenants of Mr Saunders who had paid in full. A resolution disclaiming on the part of the League any encouragement or approval of those proceedings was passed, and the question of expelling from the League those members who had paid their rent to Mr. Saunders was deferred for a week. In the meantime it was decided to take the opinion of the Dublin League on the matter.

Ballinrobe, March 2d.

The few additional particulars that have come to light concerning the attempted murder of Mr Hearne go still further to prove its desperate, deliberate nature. The situation of the place selected for the attack shows that the prepetrators of the outrage must have had the most perfect confidence in their ability to escape. Next to the High-street of Ballinrobe itself, a more public place could hardly have been chosen about this town. The Tuam-road on which Mr Hearne lives, is dotted with cottages, not more than a couple of hundred yards separating them from each other; and there are almost always people passing to and fro. Mr Hearne's usual hour of returning from the petty sessions court was between 2 and 3 o'clock. At two o'clock a young woman who happened to be passing along the road noticed a young man loitering about near the spot where Mr Hearne was shot. As she approached he clambered over the stone wall which bounds the road on one side. Her curiosity was aroused, she looked over the wall, and was rather startled to find him crouching behind it. He jumped up, and demanded angrily to know what she wanted. She replied that she was looking for a friend, and got away as quickly as she could, leaving him there. A short time afterwards another young woman, who was crossing a field some distance off, saw a man stealing down behind the stone wall towards Mr Hearne's residence. Immediately afterwards shots were heard on the road. The first-mentioned young woman has given a description to the police of the man she saw behind the wall, and it exactly corresponds with the description given by Mr. Hearne of the taller of his two assailants. It is now stated that after the attack the men walked deliberately past Mr. Hearne's residence, and there were mounted police despatched along the Tuam road in less than half-an-hour after the occurrence, followed by a party of Royal Irish Constabulary. The country around is flat, and affords little opportunity for concealment. Lough Corrib lies about six miles off, on the right, as the crow flies; but from what the police can gather, the perpetrators of the outrage appear to have turned off the road in the opposite direction towards Claremorris. Some distance beyond Mr. Hearne's house the mounted police met three women, whom they believe must have met the two fugitives. They stood and interrogated them, but the only reply they got was, "We did not meet them, and if we did we would not tell you. It is very good work for you to go and look for them." This answer needs no comment, as it is, unfortunately, the common mode in which police inquiries are met by the peasantry. The belief is that the young men are from England. Mr. Hearne is very clear that he can identify them. He succeeded in giving one of them a heavy blow on the head with his stick, and he thinks he must have inflicted a wound. There can be no doubt that, had he been armed, he could have given a good account of his assailants, as he continued to fight them with his stick after he received three wounds, and until his right hand was disabled. He is a little deaf, and his assailants appear to have taken advantage of this to steal up behind him. The evident intention was to shoot him through the head as he leant over the wall. A sudden movement frustrated this, and the bullet passed through the left shoulder of his coat, but did not injure him. So close were the shots fired that the coat was singed. He was then shot in the back over the kidneys, and this is the wound about which the doctors have the greatest apprehension. After he turned round, several more shots were fired at him. His age and the nature of the injuries being considered, it is surprising that he was enabled to reach home without assistance. The threatening letter which he received in November last told him that if any tenant was evicted from Cloongowla he might leave Ballinrobe; it was signed "A Boycotter". As already stated, there has been no change in the tenantry on the estate. Mr. De Montmorency resides for the greater part of the year in England, and is no relation of the late Lord Mountmorres, although the family name is the same. Mr. Hearne's condition remains unchanged. The doctors are now of opinion, from a superficial examination, that there is only one bullet lodged in his body.

Night.

Two young men named Nally, the sons of a herd, and relatives of a man recently evicted, have been arrested on the charge of being the persons who fired on Mr. Hearne. They are at present detained in the Claremorris Barrack, and will be taken before a magistrate to-morrow. It is stated by the friends of the accused that on the day in question they were engaged in sowing potatoes on their father's farm.

A remarkable scene was witnessed yesterday at Cloghan, a small village in the King's County. As Mr. Connolly, the auctioneer, who a few days ago sold cattle that were seized for rent, was about to conduct an auction, he was set upon by a mob of a thousand persons. He was hooted, groaned at, and eventually compelled to leave the town. An intimation has been conveyed to him that in the future he will everywhere meet with a similar reception.

As already reported, Mr. Scott, of Stonehall-house, Mayo, whose residence was fired into on Sunday night, shot one of the assailants, and it is alleged that the police know the whereabouts of the wounded man. Five rifle bullets were found in the wall of the bed room, and one lodged in the infant's cot.

LATEST FROM FRANCE

Paris, Wednesday, March 2, 9.30 p.m.

M. Rochefort writes in the Intransigeant:—"We received a visit last night from Mr Parnell, who leaves Paris on Thursday morning for London, where he will arrive in the evening to attend the Parliamentary sitting." Mr Parnell's name having disappeared from the bills giving the honorary committee for the Victor Hugo festival, the Temps thus explains what passed:—

"The committee of management had chosen Mr Parnell as one of the members of the honorary committee, and had inserted his name in the bills. The latter had been printed and a few of them had been posted up, when first a delegate from the Premier and then General Pittie, head of the President of the Republic's military household, came and asked the Committee for explanations. The Government could not sanction the Irish agitator's name figuring not far from that of the President of the Republic, seeing that France cherishes relations with England of perfect and mutual amity. These observations were bound to be accepted, and were so. The remaining bills, about 150, had not been placarded, and those already posted were covered over by order of the authorities. To prevent any fresh difficulty, the Committee decided that the subsequent bills should only contain the names of the artistes who had promised to assist, and this was done. The Irreconcilable papers affirm to-day that on the official programmes Mr Parnell's name was effaced with printer's ink, and they are indignant at an act they deem an insult to the oppressed nation. They cast the responsibility on the Prefecture of Police, the Committee, according to them, having never agreed to expunge Mr Parnell's name from the programme. We do not know who was the author of this expunging, whether it was done by order of the Committee or by that of the authorities, but what we do know is that international propriety forbade that Mr Parnell's name should figure on an official or any programme near that of M. Jules Grevy. Whether the Committee or the Prefecture of Police intervened, they will only have done their duty."

El Martes 5 de Abril,
A las 4 en punto de la tarde,

Procederemos a vender por orden y cuenta del Sr Don Vicente L Casares, procedentes del Establecimiento

'San Martin,' en Cañuelas,

VAN DICK—Tordillo negro, nacio el 11 de Noviembre de 1879, de Berta por Lyon (hermano de Bismarck, vendido en $75,000)

CONDOR—Oscuro, nacio el 24 de Octubre de 1878.

CISNE—Oscuro, nacio el 18 de Noviembre de 1878 por yegua criolla por Lyon.

ZANZIBAR—Saino, nacio el 8 de Noviembre de 1878 de yegua Cleveland (del Est. del Sr. Cobo) por Lyon.

MOISES — Saino, nacio el 12 de Octubre de 1878, de yegua Cleveland (del Est. del Sr Terrero) por Lyon.

El Condor y el Cisne forman unas lindisimas yuntas y tiran admirablemente bien.

El Moises y el Zanzibar son dos admirables animales, tiran perfectamente bien en yunta, pero son aparentes por su tamaño para un coupe.

El potrillo Van Dyck tiene una hernia en el costado izquierdo y fue traido a Buenos Aires para ser curado, pero el señor Casares a ruego de varios amigos y nuestro, ha resuelto poner en venta ese bellisimo animal. Hoy varios profesores que desean operarlo y que aseguran su cura con facilidad, pero aun dado caso que esto fuera incurable, es entendido que en todo caso sera un habil reproductor.

Por cuenta de Don Ramon Rivae

JULIETO—Yegua chilena saina. Animal exelente para andar y aparente para cria. Se garante ser superior.

En nuestra casa, San Martin 51,
El Viernes 8 de Abril,
A las 2 de la tarde,

Venderemos al mejor precio y dinero de contado en uno o mas lotes y por cuenta del Sr D. Matias Ramos Mejia, este magnifico rodeo, compuesto de:

650 cabezas mestizas Durham, verdaderas Short-horn, que se pusieron en rodeo en un solo potrero, alambrado desde el año 1862, tienen por origen el toro mas escojido de la hacienda que vendio en esa epoca la afamada estancia del Sr Allaro (de Canuelas) habiendo sido anteriormente del origen de los primeros introducidos al pais por el Sr. Miller y nunca han sido servidas sino p r toros puros de lo mejor, importados uno y otros de la renombrada cabaña de los 'Tapiales,' por cuya razon tiene este ganado la misma pureza de sangre, ofreciendo la ventaja que la paricion de los ultimos anos esta toda orejana.

Es precisamente de este ganado de donde se extrajeron las magnigcas vacas que constituyen el conocido y acreditado tambo en Ramos Mejia, que siempre han estado servidas por toros puros de lo mejor en Buenos Ayres y que dan 22 a 24 cuartas de leche sin apurarlas.

En el rodeo que se vende hay gran cantidad de estas tamberas.

Se ve, pues, tomando su origen y la fecha (1862) que este ganado es clasificado de mestizo por su propietario, cuando sus cruzas las clasifican hoy de ¾ y ⅞.

La venta se hara por todo lo que pisa.

Los dias Miercoles y Sabados se parara rodeo, y habra en la Estacion Maipu (F.C. del Sud) un break a 4 caballos, que en 2½ hora conduzira a los a los interesados a visitar las haciendas hasta Mari Huincul.
